THEN OUR MINDS GREW...

Tradition Starts With Us!

Time slips away into the unknown. No one knows what roads will appear before our wondering eyes. Each of us has a different future, but there is one thing that all of us have in common: the thirteen years of school we shared.

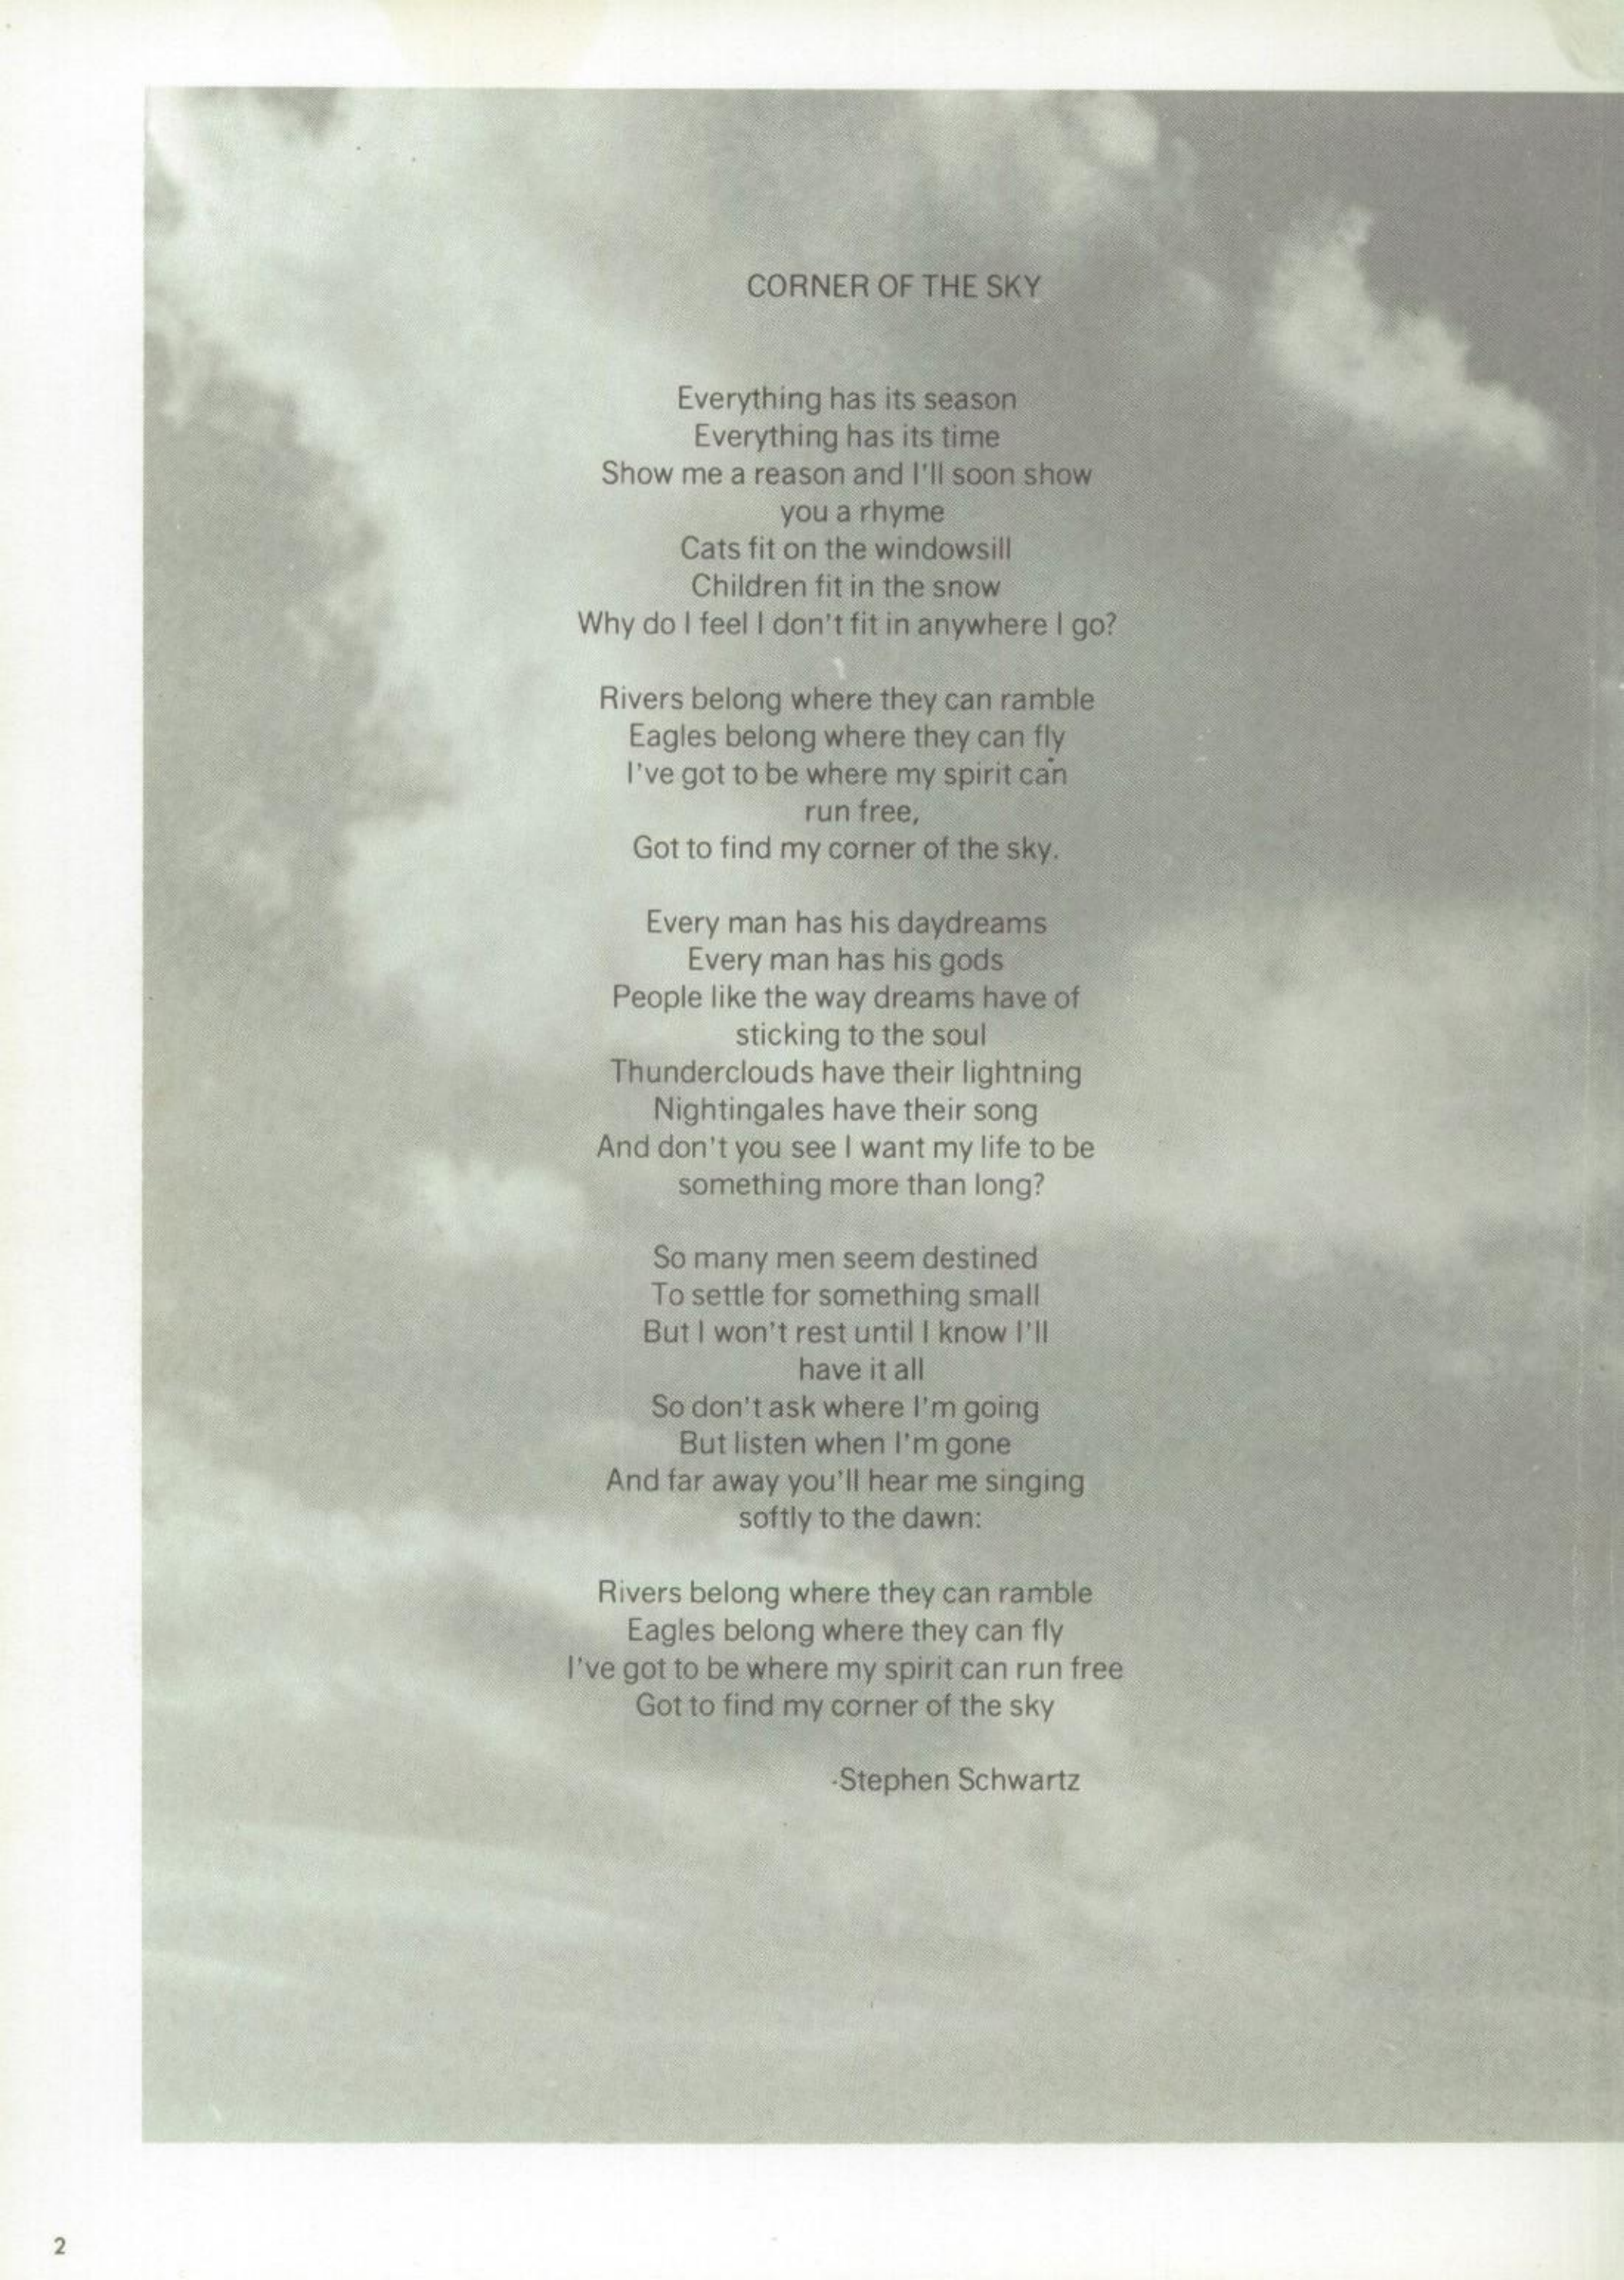

We started school in 2 groups: morning and afternoon kindergarten. Our teachers told us to be kind and share, but nevertheless, we fought and cried. The first year of trial and error was soon over, however, and we passed into the first grade. Here, for the first time, we were united into the group that was to become the graduating class of 1980.

Grade school taught us new ideas, math, spelling, grammar, and best of all, recess! We learned as much at recess as we did in any classroom. We found out what a friend was, how to win and lose, (not always gracefully, either!) and how lonely it could be to sit inside at noon writing, "I will not shoot spit wads in class," one hundred times. Some of us even learned what it was like to eat a cigarette after being caught smoking one in the bathroom.

After we moved out of sixth grade, our year of superiority, we were plunged to the depths of being seventh grade "rug rats." We ran from class to class in fear of being tardy, and raced to the lunch line, only to be pushed back by the seniors. From that point we could only climb higher.

Together we did climb. We did not launch a thousand ships — a row boat was all we needed. We stood tall in the face of defeat and rejoiced in the times of victory. We did what suited us best. Tradition starts with us, for we are unique!

We do not remember the days, we remember the moments.

CORNER OF THE SKY

Everything has its season
Everything has its time
Show me a reason and I'll soon show you a rhyme
Cats fit on the windowsill
Children fit in the snow
Why do I feel I don't fit in anywhere I go?

Rivers belong where they can ramble
Eagles belong where they can fly
I've got to be where my spirit can run free,
Got to find my corner of the sky.

Every man has his daydreams
Every man has his gods
People like the way dreams have of sticking to the soul
Thunderclouds have their lightning
Nightingales have their song
And don't you see I want my life to be something more than long?

So many men seem destined
To settle for something small
But I won't rest until I know I'll have it all
So don't ask where I'm going
But listen when I'm gone
And far away you'll hear me singing softly to the dawn:

Rivers belong where they can ramble
Eagles belong where they can fly
I've got to be where my spirit can run free
Got to find my corner of the sky

Dedication

Mrs. Roberta Harriman

Mrs. Roberta Harriman is retiring after 16 years of teaching in Augusta. During her many years at Augusta High School, Mrs. Harriman was mentor and inspiration for every student. For all this time she was the 7th grade advisor, helping new students adjust to different schedules and difficult classes. Mrs. Harriman guided students through Junior High Math, and suggested and organized the Junior High Student Council so that younger students would learn leadership before reaching high school. Under her direction, the Student Council planned fund raising drives to raise money for class trips and junior high assemblies.

In addition to her work with Jr. High students, Mrs. Harriman was also concerned with a Senior High reading program. She and a group of elementary teachers started the summer read-at-home program which was the forerunner of the presently existing reading program.

While Mrs. Harriman was president of the teachers association, the teachers scholarship was set up. This scholarship has helped many students since 1971.

Mrs. Harriman was an important part of the faculty for many years. Everyone will miss her very much for no one will be able to take her place. We wish her much happiness in her retirement.

RIF Gives Books

On May 7, the Augusta RIF (reading is fundamental) Program headed by Mrs. Kris Sell, sponsored a free book give-away for all the students in the Augusta Area School. Each student chose a book from the categories science fiction, fiction, westerns, horror, and biographies. Over 400 students in the high school participated in the reading motivation program. Two more book give-aways will be held next fall.
